

Guide for Obtaining a Delayed Birth Certificate (Bihar)

This guide is prepared for a person born at home in Kishanganj, Bihar in 1998, whose birth was never registered. Since the registration is being done after many years, it falls under delayed registration.

Documents to Carry:

#	Document
1	Aadhaar Card (self-attested copy)
2	Class 10 Certificate/Marksheet showing Date of Birth
3	Class 12 Certificate/Marksheet
4	PAN Card (if available)
5	Passport (if available)
6	Father's BSF service records mentioning family details (if available)
7	Father's Aadhaar Card
8	Mother's Aadhaar Card
9	Passport-size photographs
10	Proof of address
11	Affidavit stating that the birth occurred at home and was never registered
12	Letter/certificate from Mukhiya/Ward Member confirming birth details (if required by local authority)

Process:

1. Visit the BDO/Circle Office or Birth Registrar office in the area of birth in Kishanganj, Bihar.
2. Ask for the procedure for delayed birth registration.
3. Submit the application form and supporting documents.
4. Provide the affidavit and any additional declarations required.
5. Attend verification if called by the authorities.
6. Obtain approval from the competent authority.
7. Receive the Birth Certificate from the Registrar.

Important: Requirements may vary slightly depending on the local authority. Carry original documents along with photocopies.
